RECORDS ON DAYTONA BEACH

Will Have to be Marked up on Slate
Till After Official Records are Made.

Records are being made daily now on the beach, records which have to be wiped out and lower ones put up, because each day sees the machines more thoroughly tuned up and able to make better time. Or it may be that the northeaster which came in good time to scrape down, level and pack Daytona's beach, has done the work expected and improved this famous race track. The drivers, too, are learning to avoid certain spots, none too hard, and how to handle their racers better under the conditions prevailing here.

However this may be, or whatever the cause is, it remains a fact that far better time has been and will continue to be made, than ever before. In previous issues were recorded the time for a mile heat made by H. L. Bowden, E. R. Thomas and Edwin Hawley, all of whom covered the mile in .37, and, strange to say, all drove Mercedes cars.

Yesterday morning this record was eclipsed by Hawley, in a 90 h. p. Mercedes, when he drove 15 miles in 9 minutes and 15 seconds, an average of .37 to the mile, and yet did not use his last speed notch. One mile of this speeding was done in a fraction less than .36.

Bowden, also in a 90 h. p. Mercedes, was out yesterday, endeavoring to let his gasoline smoke drift in the faces of the drivers of other racers. He succeeded in covering two miles in 1:15, an average of .37.

The records made previous to yesterday were done with a 75 mile breeze to help the machines along, but yesterday the wind was rather light, affording little if any help. A mile is also reported to have been covered by Hawley against the wind, yesterday, the time being given as .43.

No records have been reported as being made by other than Mercedes cars, whether because they are not allowing their racers to go at top notch speed or because they are more reticent and will not let time be taken on them, is not news which the reporter could procure.

Launch Sank in Ocean.

A launch was seen yesterday afternoon at about 3 o'clock, proceeding southward. At Keatings pier she was almost close enough for those there to see her occupant or occupants. After passing the pier she was headed toward the shore, plunging badly from the effects of the heavy seas which struck her.

On arriving at a point nearly opposite the Ocean House the launch was suddenly seen to put about and start for deeper water. This action of her captain being, as is supposed, due either to shoal water or to get out into where it was calmer.

The little vessel, immediately upon being turned, was seen to plunge into a huge wave and was evidently swamped, as she was seen no more. Quite a number of people collected and the beach was patrolled for some signs of the boat or its occupants, but not a vestige had been seen of either when the DAYTONA NEWS man appeared on the scene of the supposed disaster. Powerful glasses and telescopes were used in a search for the boat far out at sea, hoping that she had survived her fearful plunge, but she could not be located. What boat it was, or who were the occupants no one seemed to know.

Novelty Works Trouble Settled.

The differences between McClellan & Edwards, Lessies, Daytona Novelty Works, and the Carpenters' Union No 1725, was satisfactorily settled, Saturday evening, 14th inst., and the union help has returned to work at the mill. 16-3t

An Old Favorite

YOUTH AND AGE

By Charles Kingsley

NO writer in the language has shown a greater power of description than Kingsley. Landscape, beast and bird are invested with poetic charm. * * * The verdict of time has placed Kingsley among the minor poets. His genius was not equal to a sustained flight. He will be best remembered by those short dramatic lyrics which he sang in measures approaching perfection.—Warner's Library of the World's Best Literature.

WHEN all the world is young, lad,
And everything is green,
And every goose a swan, lad,
And every lass a queen,
Then boot, lad, and horse, lad,
And round the world away,
And go it while you're young, lad—
Each dog must have his day.

When all the world gets old, lad,
And all the trees turn brown,
And all the jests get stale, lad,
And all the wheels run down,
Then lie back to thy home, lad—
The maimed and sick among;
Thank God! If then you find one face
You loved when you were young.

When Her Husband Saw the Milliner

MR. STANDISH was mad when he went into the millinery establishment, and the longer he stayed the madder he got. Presently he walked over to a stunning black creation that hung on a peg near the window and said:

"This is the hat I want to see you about."

The proprietor came forward. "What can I do for you?" he asked.

"You can fix this hat over the way my wife asked you to," said Standish explosively. "She wants the feather put on the other side, that bow moved to the front, and she wants the rim to bulge a little more over the temples."

"She says you've refused to make any alterations on the ground that the addition or subtraction of another stitch is bound to ruin it, but I tell you that's all nonsense. My wife knows how she wants her hat to look, and if she can't stand up for her rights I'll do it for her. She is coming around this afternoon to try the hat on again. If it isn't ready by that time there'll be no end of a row."

The proprietor twirled the black hat on his forefinger and looked from it to the head saleswoman lugubriously.

"I remember," he said, "that the lady who ordered this hat did bring it back yesterday to be remodeled. Perhaps it will be possible to make the alterations suggested, after all."

The manager's humility made Standish feel very proud of himself. "That's the only way to deal with those fellows," he said when he left the shop.

"You've got to meet them on their own level. It takes a man to do that. No wonder women get cheated out of their very eyeteeth. They haven't got sand enough to say the things that have to be said to secure their rights."

Throughout the day Standish continued to revel in self congratulations, and he actually went home half an hour ahead of time to see if his wife's hat had been metamorphosed into the thing of beauty he had suggested.

"Well," said he jubilantly, "was the hat all right?"

"All right?" said Mrs. Standish. "They hadn't even touched it. How could you expect it to be all right when you didn't stop in to see about it?"

"But I did stop," protested Standish.

"I saw everybody about the place and laid the whole establishment out in great shape. Here's their card. I picked it up as I was passing out."

Mrs. Standish took up the card and read the name aloud.

"O-o-o-oh!" she cried. "Is that where you went? Why, you got into the wrong place. What on earth will that manager think? He must think you are crazy."

"I don't care if he does," said Standish limply, "but I would like to know what the owner of that black hat will say if they make it over according to my directions."—New York Press.

Trouble Coming.

Mr. Roach—This is an outrage. I'll bet my rival posted that.—San Francisco Examiner.

Conventional.

They were parting.
The light in the hall was dim.
"Good night," he said, bending to press a kiss upon her cheek.

"Now, if you ever tell any one," she began.

"Ah," he whispered, "I printed that kiss there, not for publication, but as an evidence of good faith."—Chicago Tribune.

A Natural Inference.

"How long have you been the husband of the defendant?"

"Twenty-four years."

"Eh! She's just testified that her age is but twenty-eight. How do you explain this?"

"We—we married young, your honor."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Simply Couldn't Do It.

"And you wouldn't begin a journey on Friday?"

"You bet I wouldn't."

"I can't understand how you can have any faith in such a silly superstition."

"No superstition about it—Saturday's pay day."—Detroit News.

No Cause For Alarm.

Bunny—Ma, there comes a hunter. Old Rabbit—Sit right still. He won't hurt you. That old chap has been shooting around here every fall for the last ten years, and he's never hit anything yet.—Detroit Free Press.

She Spoke Too Soon.

Algy—I don't take much stock in what Miss Penny says.

Arthur—Why not?

Algy—She said she could die waiting, but when I stepped on her corn she called me all the names in the calendar.—Philadelphia Curator.

Fine Building for Goodall

Quite a large number of people were seen congregated on Seabreeze avenue yesterday, watching men making the artificial stone which is to be used in the construction of the building to be erected by Dr. Van Valzah, which will be used for stores on the ground floor and apartments on the upper.

The stones or bricks are 8x10x20 inches and are made of cement and sand. The sand is procured from Mt. Arrarat, that being coarser and better suited for the work than beach sand. This is mixed in the right proportions, water added and the whole moulded into the desired shape right where the building is to be erected.

For the proposed building it will take about 15,000 of these brick, 1000 of which are now about ready for use. The work is done rapidly and it will not take many days to get this apparently large number ready as they do not have to be baked. They are simply put in the sun or wind to dry and when ready look very much like stone.

Colonnades Orchestra

The Colonnades Orchestra has arrived and from now until this popular hotel closes, the guests and visitors will have their stay enhanced by the excellence of the music.

J. H. Landold, pianist, the leader of this orchestra, was here last year and was popular with the guests on account of his willingness to play out of hours on the solicitation of the guests. He is assisted this year by Frank Holloway, Cello, and W. Welker, Violin.

I. O. O. F. Notice.

The attention of Odd Fellows, residents or visitors, is called to the condition of N. R. Bailey, bridge tender on the middle bridge, who was seriously hurt, Sunday. All brothers are requested to call.

L. L. Wilkerson, N. Y., and H. L. Gordon, Carry, Pa., are guests at Schmidt's Villa.

State News Items.

Miami Athletic Club is made liberal offer of financial aid if it will become a branch of the Y. M. C. A.

The Oklawaha river season opened yesterday, the Okechumpkee making the initial trip.

The prospects for a large strawberry crop at Arcadia, DeSoto county, are excellent.

The next annual meeting of the Florida State Baptist Association will be held at Bartow.

The Southern Stock Growers' Association, which closed its sessions in Jacksonville last Friday, adjourned until February 11, when there will be a meeting in Tampa.

The Southern Baptist Witness will this year be in charge of a special publication board composed of Prof. A. A. Murphree, B. B. Tatum and E. O. Painter.

No sooner does interest abate in Florida's orange crop than attention is turned to the strawberry crop, and it is said the latter will be larger than ever this season.

The friends of Dr. Dowie say he has proved himself to be a Christian by paying $1,000,000 in debts. But what the Gainesville Sun wants to know is, how could any man get hold of $4,000,000 and still be a Christian?

J. W. Ferrell shoots Geo. Maddox and instantly kills him in Gainesville.

Announcement of Candidacy.

I hereby offer myself as a candidate for Mayor and if elected will pursue the same lines of administration as in the past two years.

Respectfully,
C. L. SMITH.

The Gazette-News

THE GAZETTE-NEWS is a weekly newspaper published at Daytona, Florida, by Geo. F. Crouch, in the interest of Daytona and vicinity, is Democratic in political flavor, and is an advocate of prosperity, peace and good roads for our citizens. Its columns are devoted to bringing before our readers a brief and authentic account of the happenings of this place and of the adjoining communities. Our local writers are ever on the lookout for news items and are assisted by good correspondents from all nearby towns.

The Northerner who spends his winters here, the occasional winter resident, or those who are now making their first visit to our City, could invest no money where it would give them greater enjoyment for a year than $1.50 spent for a subscription to the GAZETTE-NEWS. In the course of a year it will tell the Northern reader what Daytona really is, and if our section of the country would be better suited to him than his present location.

As to health, we firmly believe that Daytona is as healthy a location as any spot in the United States, and is briefly quoted as "Daytona is lost Paradise regained." To tell even briefly our advantages over other sections of the country in Health, Investments, Pleasures, and a place one can call Home, would consume too much space. And as a suggestion for your personal enjoyment and business relations in the South, that you subscribe now for the GAZETTE-NEWS. We would be pleased to count you as a "Daytona advocate" and a GAZETTE-NEWS Reader.

Make our Office your Headquarters.

After Lee's Surrender.

In "Recollections and Letters of General Robert E. Lee" Captain R. E. Lee describes his father's return to private life after the surrender of Appomattox. He says:

"A day or two after the surrender General Lee started for Richmond, riding Traveler, who had carried him so well all through the war. He was accompanied by some of his staff. On the way he stopped at the house of his eldest brother, Charles Carter Lee, who lived on the upper James, in Powhatan county. He spent the evening in talking with his brother, but when bedtime came, though begged by his host to take the room and bed prepared for him, he insisted on going to his old tent, pitched by the roadside, and passed the night in the quarters that he was accustomed to. On April 15 he arrived in Richmond. The people there soon recognized him. Men, women and children crowded around him, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs. It was more like the welcome to a conqueror than to a defeated prisoner on parole. He raised his hat in response to their greeting and rode quietly to his home on Franklin street, where my mother and sisters were anxiously awaiting him. Thus he returned to that private family life for which he had always longed and became what he always desired to be—a peaceful citizen in a peaceful land."

Oil on the Coffee.

The cup of black coffee had on its surface a little oil. This oil shimmered. It gave forth delicate, changing colors, like oil on water. The man who was about to drink the coffee gazed at it with delight.

"The oil," he said, "tells me all I want to know about the coffee. Now, without tasting it, I am sure it is superb."

"The whole secret of making coffee," he went on, "lies in extracting and retaining this oil. This oil it is which gives coffee its aromatic and delicious taste. This oil it is also which stimulates you, which makes you feel after you have drunk strong and gay."

"Good coffee—the kind with oil about on it—can only be made by excellent cooks. In millionaires' houses or in hotels where they employ French chefs you are likely to get it. But the average American housewife does not know how to make this oily kind of coffee at all."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Soot as a Disinfectant.

Of the many cheap and simple disinfectants proposed for the use of the people one of the most effective is common soot. Soot is composed of pure carbon and is formed by the hot vapor of the hydrocarbon coming from burning fuel striking the cold walls of the chimney or stovepipe and condensing thereon. It is a very light, porous and impalpable powder and, like charcoal, which is the same element in a different form, possesses the property of absorbing and retaining a wonderful amount of gas. The great danger of disease about sewers, drains and other places is almost entirely due to gas given off by decomposing matter. If soot be sprinkled about these places it will absorb the foul gas.—London Mail.

Too Much Imagination.

Pity the man or woman devoid of imagination, but he or she who allows the imagination too great liberty becomes his subject rather than his master.

ter. The man who wears a rubber on the pedal attachment to his cork leg because the cork foot aches without the rubber is as unfortunate a victim as the Scotchman who fainted on account of the heat in church the first Sunday after stoves were set up, although a fire had not been lighted in any of them.

Dutch Cure For Lazy People.

The Hollanders are not fond of lazy people, and they have a very good way of curing persons who can but won't work. If a pauper who is able to work refuses to do so they put him in a cistern, to which a pump is attached, and turn on a stream of water. The stream flows into the cistern just slow enough to enable the lazy person by lively pumping to keep the water from getting up over his head.

Real Riches.

"Who is the richest man in the world?" asks an exchange and begins measuring millions against millions. All wrong. The richest man in the world is the one that gets the greatest amount of happiness out of what he has, whatever it is. It is an old truth, but it was never truer than it is today.—Pueblo (Colo.) Chieftain.

A Reminder.

Editor Sister—Really, dear, you mustn't put "I remain ever your loving Nellie Tomkins." You may put "I remain your loving Nellie Tomkins" if you like, but underline the "remain" and the "Tomkins." Father's been throwing out hints about the long courtship, darling!

Before and After.

Mr. Busybody—Pardon me for mentioning it, but isn't your wife a little rude to you at times? Mr. Henpecked—Well, it does seem so to me. Before we were married she used to sit on my knee. Now she sits all over me.—Somerville Journal.

Not Using It.

Mr. Green—Miss Passay says she has a prescription for perpetual youth. Miss Sarcastic—It's a wonder she wouldn't take it to a drug store and have it put up.—Detroit Free Press.

Ducal Persiflage.

Duke of Hilberry—Where were you when the king fell off his horse? Duke of Hohokus—Oh, I was near the thrown!—Pittsburg Post.

Crosses on Beer Barrels.

Beer barrels are invariably marked with a series of crosses, which nowadays denote the quality of the beer contained in the cask. These crosses were originally put on by the monks, who then made all the malt liquors, as a sort of trademark. The crosses were not of the same shape as now shown, but were more akin to the shape of a crucifix and were intended to show that by "their oath sworn on the cross" the beer supplied was of a fit and drinkable condition.—London Times.

Why Babies Look Old.

When we think of the physical martyrdom the babies go through in the way of dress and of the mental torture they must endure when they observe how thoroughly and hopelessly they are always misunderstood can we wonder at the look of age and care that settles so early on their infant brows?—Marie Corelli.

They Got Married.

Tom (who has been away)—Did you and that girl you were engaged to last summer get married? Jack—Yes, but we are not living together. Tom—Why? What's the trouble? Jack—Oh, no trouble at all. She married another man, and I married another girl.

T. J. Trevel, of New Harmony, Ind., arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Trevel spent last season here and was unable to visit Daytona's amusements this year.

Mr. George M. Freeman and wife, Miss Maria Flackey Norris and Miss Cordelia Flackey Norris, of Philadelphia, are spending two weeks at Ormond.

A. C. Webb, Charles Scales, Dick Patton and Paul May, of the Pope Motor Car Co., Toledo, are registered at The Inn, Ormond, and may be seen daily speeding on the beach.

Mrs. Mary Stevens, of Lynn, Mass., has joined her son, Mr. Charles G. Stevens, for a long stay at the Hotel Ormond. Mr. Stevens has a motor boat and also two steam autos at Ormond.

We have this day bought the entire stock of the Daytona Grocery Co., and will put in a large and complete stock of the best and cheapest groceries, fish and grains and kindly ask your patronage.
Yours Very Respectfully,

Mrs. B. Brown, Miss Mary G. Wiler, Alexandria, Va.; D. E. Lath, Atlanta; Mrs. M. Neilson, St. Johns, N. H.; W. R. Glens, Kingston, Ont.; Miss Gertrude A. Tru, De Land; Thos. Brown and wife, N. Y.; W. A. Callen and wife, Rushville, Ind.; Jas. D. Stanley and wife, Indianapolis, Ind.; and Mrs. W. W. Wimmer, Springfield, O.; J. H. Gregg, Cincinnati, are guests at The Seaside.

Mr. Spencer B. Green was the recipient, yesterday, of a beautiful set of orange spurs, exquisite in design, sent as a testimonial of regard, by two of her last season's guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rowlander, of Woodland, Mich. Roy G. Rowlander, a brother of C. E. Rowlander, is accused of making a happy presentation speech.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allen, and daughters, Misses Lillian and Bernice, are occupying the Britton cottage, Seabreeze. Mr. and Mrs. Allen have been winter residents here for years, their first season being when the Columbians opened its doors to the public for the first time and it was there they stopped.

DR. DAVENPORT, Dentist.

Will open his office in the Opera House Block, Daytona, on Jan. 15.

G. P. Chick and family, of Gloucester, Mass., have rented the Ocean House, Goodall, from Chas. Kappeler, beach, and will remain there for the season. Mr. Chick is proprietor of Ross Rocks Inn, located in his home town.

Quite a number of people assembled at The Pines, last night, and were entertained by the guests with music, vocal and instrumental. Miss Love, of St. Louis, rendered several vocal selections which were much enjoyed.

A party of twelve, guest of The Inn, went up to view the Tomoka, today. In this party were Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. Converse, sister and child, Misses Vables, Dwyer, Rose, Whitten and Killian and Mrs. McIntyre.

We have had a few bumpets thrown at us since launching the Daily News, for which we are grateful. If hard work is a criterion, we have deserved them. Even the type must admit that with the large area of the city to cover, our reporter must do some riding stunts to gather even a part of the news. Our item boxes are seldom filled, though we appreciate the items dropped there occasionally.

For Sale, one week only, the auxiliary yard loader, 28 feet long, 7 ft. beam, 11 ft. cabin, 3 h. p., 1 cycle, Stirling engine with battery. Anchor cable and tender, Price, $550. Half copper alcohol. In good order. J. Y. Dwyer, Pres. Fla. Fish Com New Smyrna, Fla.

A Pleasant Tour.
Last night's train brought in Col. C. G. Edwards, G. W. Blyss and A. H. Kling, who left New York some weeks ago for a trip, the itinerary including long stops in Porto Rico, Cuba and Nassau.

The party left New York by steamer, passing to the east of the Bahamas and landed first in Porto Rico. Here it was that the party had such trouble to get their necessary wants supplied, owing to no one in the party being able to speak Spanish. Many amusing incidents are related by the party as a result of this circumstance. The party seem to have enjoyed themselves thoroughly, except during the gale which prevailed during a part of the trip.

Col. Edwards states that during the gale the steamer passed many wrecks, one of which, a large Spanish steamer, stranded about 5 miles south of Palm Beach.

THE WEATHER.

Rain tonight. Thursday warmer.

W. A. Kimball and wife, of Jersey City, have arrived and are located at The Gables.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McLane and family, of New York, are at the Ormond for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. David Yiule and Miss Yiule, Montreal, Can., are registered at the Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell, with Mrs. Stevens, of Chicago, have come to Ormond for the season.

The Comtesse Guio de Gastelner, of Italy, is in Florida for the first time, a guest of the Hotel Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stone, Duluth, Minn., are to spend the entire winter at Ormond. Mr. and Mrs. Stone spent last winter in California.

George F. Duncan and wife, of Portland, Me., regular guests of the Ormond, and the Mt. Washington, at Bretton Woods, N. H., have returned for the season.

Inc. W. Toogood, Prince Albert, Sask.; Miss Miss M. Toogood, London, Eng.; G. F. Reiser and wife, Woodland, Mich.; Chas. Bender and wife, Albany, N. Y., are Cleveland guests.

Mr. L. A. Hamilton, winner of the golf tournament at Bretton Woods the past summer, with Mrs. Hamilton, Dr. J. Wilson Parks and Miss Edna Frieberg, have come from New York for the entire season at Ormond.

Wightman Smith and wife, of Cincinnati, accompanied by B. Deacon, spent yesterday at Spruce Creek fish ing aboard the launch Kingfisher. They returned with 75 blue fish and would have brought more but the bait ran out.

Mr. R. H. Buritt, purchaser of Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr.'s 90-horse power Mercedes, which made the record on Daytona beach last year, is registered at The Inn with Mr. J. J. O'Conner, both of Newark, N. J. The machine will participate in the races.

J. E. Dean, Sr., and J. E. Dean, Jr., composing the firm of Dean Bros., have bought out the Daytona Grocery Co., and will operate the store. J. E. Dean, Jr., will have charge of the store, the older brother remaining at Espanola, where they own and operate large turpentine firms.

†Found—Fur neck piece. Apply to Mrs. Brown, chiropodist, Troy House.

Mrs. Mary Downie, of Evanston, Ill., has arrived for her second season at Ormond.

Maj. Robt. M. Rogers, of the U. S. Army, is at Hotel Ormond for a month's visit.

Mr. William Wallace, of Boston, is preparing his 90-horse power Fiat for good work in the races next week.

J. G. Murdock, Misses Marie, Louise and Margaret Murdock, Cincinnati; A. H. Kling, Marion, O., are at The Ridgewood.

The brick work for the observation pier at the Automobile Club House is completed and carpenters are at work putting the timbers in place.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Everett Hilliard, Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. E. M. Woodward, New York City, former patrons of the Mt. Pleasant, in Bretton Woods, N. H., are registered for a long stay at Ormond.

The Municipal Court judge of Jacksonville, is working against the interests of Daytona. Yesterday a man accused of disorderly conduct, who stated that he wanted to come to Daytona, was sent to Raspberry Park. This judge can't discriminate between a drunk and auto racing fever—the symptoms are similar.

T. M. Allen, Joseph Allen, J. G. Storer and S. S. Smith, four guests of The Cleveland, chartered a launch and went down the river fishing. A nice lunch, plenty of bait, etc., was carried along in order to secure a good catch. The party ordered a wagon to meet them at the landing at 5 this evening.

Mrs. Spencer B. Green was the recipient, yesterday, of a beautiful set of orange spoons, exquisite in design, sent as a testimonial of regard, by two of her last season's guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rowlander, of Woodland, Mich. Roy G. Rowlander, a brother of C. E. Rowlander, is accused of making a happy presentation speech.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its widest expanse and midway between its source at Babcock Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29° 52' and longitude 81° 05'. Its site is upon a flat, sandy beach, fringed by a line of palms and cypresses, and among these are the hotels, houses, and other buildings of the city. The beach is a mile long and is bordered by a line of palms and cypresses, and among these are the hotels, houses, and other buildings of the city. The beach is a mile long and is bordered by a line of palms and cypresses, and among these are the hotels, houses, and other buildings of the city.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half mile of open, beautiful water skimming upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and tender the Halifax climate, one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well graded, macadam and shell roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at oblique, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula

lying between river and ocean is one-half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature

at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheephead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
